An investigative consumer report may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics and mode of living that may be obtained by interviews with individuals with whom you are acquainted or who may have knowledge concerning any such items of information. This also may include contacts of all listed prior employers to verify your employment history. You have the right, upon written request, to a complete and accurate disclosure of the nature and scope of the investigation. You also are entitled to a copy of that document entitled Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act. Under the FCRA, before we take adverse action on the basis, in whole or in part, of information in a consumer report, you will be provided a copy of that report, the name, address, and telephone number of the consumer reporting agency, and a summary of your rights under the FCRA.

Your information may be processed in a foreign country by persons providing services to our company and it may be accessible to law enforcement and national security authorities of that jurisdiction.

Notice to California Applicants. Under California law, the reports ordered about you for employment purposes within the State of California are defined as "investigative consumer reports." These reports may contain information on your character, general reputation, personal characteristics and mode of living. You also may obtain a copy by submitting proper identification and paying the cost of duplication by appearing at iiX in person, by mail, or by telephone. iiX is required to have personnel available to explain the report(s) and to explain any coded information. If you appear in person, you may be accompanied by a person of your choice, if s/he furnishes proper identification.

Notice to Massachusetts Applicants. Under Massachusetts law, an employer is prohibited from making written, pre-employment inquiries of an applicant about his or her criminal history. MASSACHUSETTS APPLICANTS SHOULD NOT RESPOND TO ANY OF THE QUESTIONS SEEKING CRIMINAL RECORD INFORMATION.
